Re: United States v. Luis Merced et al.,
Including DORIAN BROOKS
19 Cr. 832 (ER)

Dear Judge Ramos:

Mark DeMarco and I are the attorneys for Dorian Brooks, a defendant in the above-named matter. This letter is respectfully submitted without objection from the government, by AUSA Andrew K. Chan, to request an adjournment of sentence, which is presently scheduled for April 6, 2022 at 3:30 p.m. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and recent lockdowns at the Metropolitan Detention Center, we are still waiting to receive documents and information that are needed to prepare Mr. Brooks' sentencing submission. We therefore need additional time to finalize our submission and prepare for sentencing. For this reason, it is respectfully requested that Mr. Brooks' sentencing be postponed to May 25, 2022, a date that I understand is convenient for the Court.

If the Court has any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeremy Schneider
